Albania is reportedly to become the headquarters of a Communist anti-colonialist campaign in North Africa. An office which will be responsible for North African questions and which will make use of North African nationalist parties as much as possible has been created for this purpose.

Comments: A similar unconfirmed rumor concerning the new Tirana radio station was in circulation prior to its completion. This was to the effect that the station would have a multilingual staff and be used as a propaganda medium for the Mediterranean area. Subsequent developments have shown that the station is not large enough for this purpose, nor has there been any indication of multilingual broadcasts.
